* Warning *

This book is based on the idea of "What if Aerith and Tifa were maids?"
in a parallel-universe setting

Aerith & Tifa Preface

Hello, this is Nono: Haruka, and I'll be writing the introduction for this book. While the art you see on these pages is almost exaggeratedly cute, I hope that you will see that the story itself is crafted with love and care, so to the person holding this book in your hands: thank you. (Since Asuka-san isn't going to get a chance to look this over, I can say whatever I want, right?)

Just by taking a passing glance at this book, you can definitely tell that it's a Aerith-themed parallel universe work. My role of an adorable maid duo's pencils. (Laughs) But when Asuka-san submitted her work, I felt these looking at the two side-by-side.

Do you like the thought of seeing Aerith and Tifa in maid outfits? ...Well then, look forward to this book! Is this your first time even thinking about a world themed like this? Well then, would you like to explore it together?

Moving on, Aerith and Tifa get along so well. They tease each other, fight together, and laugh together... Anyway, (That sounds like a synopsis of my own story, though...) if you, the reader, enjoy these two new versions of the girls' worlds, it would make us very happy.

See you again~
